

PROGRAMME

17th of May, 2018 in Trondheim

Everyone is welcome to take part in the traditional celebrations held on our national day. One of the main attractions is the children's parade at 09:45.

The first children's parade, arranged by the Norwegian author and Nobel laureate Bjørnstjerne Bjørnson, was held in Oslo on 17 May 1870.

The first civic parade in Trondheim was held much earlier, however, on 17 May 1826. It was arranged by Matthias Conrad Peterson who was the editor of the daily newspaper Adresseavisen and the director of the Bank of Norway
